

Ashford East By-Election

Aleksejus (Alex) Sapunovas is your Conservative candidate
Election day is Thursday 4th May

Alex's Six point plan

1. Encourage a thoughtful and imaginative regeneration of Ashford town centre.
2. Bringing pressure to ensure green belt is protected whilst encouraging new housing and economic development.
3. Delivering a safer community by working with the police commissioner and Spelthorne Borough Council tackling antisocial behaviour, littering, graffiti and fly-tipping, improving local neighbourhood enforcement and cracking down on problems caused by irresponsible dog ownership.
4. Striving for efficiencies in a way the council delivers your services I will actively involve myself in review of operations of the Council and identify alternatives to achieve higher quality services and better value for money.
5. I will encourage the council to support local businesses to create more jobs. Localism is important. Alex is standing to join Spelthorne's first class Conservative team "the imaginative financing BP deal enables the Borough to step in and solve problems like the street lighting issue – something our opponents don't understand".
6. I shall support Spelthorne Council campaign to oppose root and branch any cut in a local emergency services that might compromise public services.

About Alex

Alex is a proud local resident, having lived in a borough of Spelthorne since 2001.

Alex is a family man with two daughters. His younger daughter attends school in Ashford.

A qualified engineer Alex runs his own business serving the construction industry in and around London.

An active local campaigner Alex and his family have supported the local campaign to include Ashford railway station in the Zone 6 pricing scheme.

Alex has lobbied councillors in relation of local planning issues.

Alex has also throughout his time as local resident actively supported and campaigned for the local Conservative party working during latest borough elections particularly closely with local party president, Sir Ivan Lawrence QC.

Alex is a great supporter of local youth and was particularly proud when his daughter Ana received a Spelthorne star youth award in March 2017.

Alex cares passionately about public service and is prepared to fight for the voices of Ashford East residents to be heard. Alex will fight to protect our green belt and oppose overdevelopment.
