

Ashford North and Stanwell South By-Election

Council Leader's visit

At their last meeting, the Ashford North Residents Association welcomed Spelthorne Borough Council Leader Ian Harvey.

"I was really delighted to meet all of the residents who attended this meeting," said Councillor Harvey. "I was especially pleased to be able to have a long chat with local Conservative candidate John Boughtflower afterwards. We talked about a range of issues that are important to local residents."

John Boughtflower, who is vice chairman of the association, said "We discussed top issues for Ashford North and Stanwell South Residents such as anti-social behaviour, littering, and dog fouling. We talked about the possibility of general improvement in the shopping districts of the area."

Spelthorne Borough Council is looking at improvements to the services and local shopping districts generally, according to Councillor Harvey. "We know how much improvements to the street scene can help local shops and encourage people to shop in their own neighbourhood."

John also said he is keen to support the Conservative campaign to include Ashford and Staines Railway Stations in the Zone 6 pricing scheme. Councillor Harvey said "We hope the campaign will be successful, as Zone 6 has been extended to include Epsom station, which is also in Surrey. We are going to continue to press the case for the extension."

John's community activities

John's work with ANRA keeps him and the family busy. Always an active member, John has worked with local Conservative Councillors enhancing Spelthorne's anti dog fouling campaign. This included the strategic placement of 'No Messing' Stencils throughout the area. Enforcement is also a priority - if you witness offending dog owners, John suggests you phone Spelthorne's team on 017844 46411

In addition to a number of street cleans in the A30 area, John joined Conservative Councillors confronting the management of McDonalds about litter control. Although there is more to be done, the company responded well with notices and extra bins.

About John

John and his family have lived in Ashford for more than 30 years. A very active local campaigner, John has played a leading role in a number of local clear up projects and community improvement programmes.

Today, he works hard for local residents as the vice-chairman of the Ashford North Residents Association – he knows the issues that are important to people living in the area and has experience in making change happen.

John lives today in Kenilworth Road with his wife Susana and daughter Maria, who attends school in the ward. His mother also lives in the ward. He has worked his way up from the shop floor to a management role in a national logistics and distribution company. A lifelong Conservative, John is pro-Heathrow and will be voting to leave the EU in June.

“I hope to serve as a borough councillor so I can champion localism and regenerative economic development, for the Ashford North and Stanwell South areas,” says John. “I know how important community, family and hard work are, both from my own personal experience and through talking with local residents about what is important to them.”
