

Working for Lower Sunbury and Halliford

From Ian Harvey, Tim Evans, Daxa Patel, Suzy Webb & Alfred Friday

Election day is 7th May 2015

SUNBURY'S SPELTHORNE MAYOR

Our Mayor Cllr. Suzy Webb from Sunbury East is continuing her hectic schedule of events, both inside and outside the borough, attending 153 events up to mid January.

In November she officially opened the new London Irish ground and club house on the old Hazelwood site off Green Street which has the mission "Excellence in Exile" and she has also opened the new centre for autistic young adults and the adjacent scout and guide facility in School Walk.

In December the Mauritian Deputy High Commissioner was the principal guest at our first Mauritian evening, celebrating Spelthorne's twinning with Grand Port Savanne in Mauritius.

Roads update

Following pressure from Conservative Cllr Tim Evans in response to many requests from residents double yellow lines have now been painted round the corners of Harfield Road and Lower Hampton Road. Several residents had complained of dangerous parking on this corner as it blocks the sightlines of drivers turning out of Harfield Road. "local residents had warned of near misses and accidents waiting to happen" said Tim "so I am pleased that the yellow lines are finally down".

A similar solution has been implemented in Halliford village where local residents have long complained of lorries blighting the village with their fumes and parking on the pavement causing dangerous blind spots.

Commented Tim "despite the 7.5 tonne lorry ban the village is still overrun with lorries and vans illegally parked. Perhaps the double yellow lines will act as a further deterrent. If necessary I will not hesitate to recommend further measures to the Council. Many residents are fed up with this spoiling of their village.

KEMPTON PARK.

A public meeting instigated by Cllr Alfred Friday was held on 3rd Feb at the London Irish Hazelwood Centre, Sunbury to air concerns circulating recently about Jockey Club (owners of Kempton Park) may have for its future. Cllr Robert Watts (Leader of the Spelthorne Council) and Roberto Tambini, Chief Executive of Spelthorne BC gave the Council's view and took questions. It remains clear that all present, residents, councillors (who are also residents) and officers alike, are united in their desire to protect the Green Belt and to resist any attempts to build on Kempton Park.

SUNBURY HEALTH CENTRE UPDATE

Conservative Cllrs Tim Evans and Daxa Patel have been working with our MP Kwasi Kwarteng and the doctors at Sunbury Health Centre to resolve the pressures on appointments there. Progress is being made in discussions with the NHS. Said Tim Evans "Everyone in Sunbury is aware of the pressure on this important service. It's too soon to make any promises but all involved are now examining the possible options for both the short term and the longer term. Fingers crossed we hope to make meaningful progress in the near future."
