The County Council elections on 2nd May resulted in Carol Coleman (Conservative) being re-elected to represent Ashford East and parts of Ashford Common and Ashford Town as your County Councillor at Surrey County Council for another 4 years for the Ashford Division.

Carol has successfully represented you for the last 8 years, and is already working hard again on your behalf on many issues, and with many partners to get improvements for Ashford.

We would like to thank the many people that supported us to get Carol re-elected, and to all those that supported us by coming out or posting their votes for Carol.

Your Conservative Councillors are each able to award grants to local causes and schemes, if you know of any good causes that you want to nominate for some of these community grants, please contact your local Conservative Councillor.

We are asking for volunteers to help us deliver these In Touch leaflets in your area, usually just a road or two. If you would like to help us keep in touch with your area, please contact us with your details at the address or phone number given below.

You do not need to be a member.

We welcome new members, and put on regular social events, hold discussion groups, have a conservative women's group, and hold regular committee meetings in all areas of Spelthorne.

Please contact us at Cherry Orchard if you would like more details on how to join, or visit our website at www.spelthorneconservatives.org.uk

Spelthorne Conservatives are also on Facebook.

Carol holds a regular councillor surgery in Ashford Library on the first Saturday of every month with a borough councillor, and everyone is welcome to come along to discuss any issues they have, or just say hello.

She can also be contacted by writing to her at 3A Nelson Road, Ashford, Middlesex TW15 3QT, or by phone: 01784 255706, or of course by writing to her c/o Cherry Orchard, Staines, our Association head office.

Draft EU referendum bill

David Cameron has said that if he is Prime Minister, there will be an in-out referendum in the next Parliament.

And as the Prime Minister has said, in this Parliament we will look at all options to underline the fact that our commitment to the referendum is absolute. That's why the Conservative Party has published a draft bill to legislate in this Parliament for an in-out referendum before the end of 2017.

We will be working with James Wharton as he brings our draft bill before Parliament as a private member's bill.

We know there are MPs in other parties who also believe that the British people should be given a choice on our country's membership of the EU, and so we urge them to back the bill.

But if other parties do not back it, people will be able to see that only the Conservative Party is offering an in-out referendum and that the two other mainstream parties, Labour and the Liberal Democrats, oppose an in-out referendum.

Home Buy

The Mortgage Guarantee scheme will provide much needed help for people who can't afford a big deposit to get a mortgage. This is a good use of the Government's fiscal credibility that will support home buyers and home building

The scheme will run for three years from January 2014. A future government would need the agreement of the Bank of England
